

Save The Date for the Tontitown Art Festival – April 27 – 28, 2024

Join us at the picturesque Harry Sbanotto Park in Tontitown, Arkansas, as we celebrate the Tontitown Art Festival on April 27 – 28, 2024. This vibrant event promises to be a weekend of artistic exploration, featuring an impressive variety of original artworks in diverse mediums.

Artistry in Every Form

Explore a world of creativity as you peruse a wide selection of art forms, including clay, digital art, glasswork, fiber art, mixed media, exquisite jewelry, and painting created using acrylics, oils, and watercolors. Additionally, discover the world through the lenses of talented photographers and immerse yourself in the beauty of sculptures, masterfully created from materials such as bronze, clay, glass, metal, stone, and wood. All artworks will be available for purchase.

Community, Culture, and Creativity

The Tontitown Art Festival will be a cherished community event that welcomes everyone, free of charge. We offer ample free parking for your convenience, ensuring easy access to the festivities. Join us from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm on both Saturday and Sunday to immerse yourself in the world of art.

Be a Part of the Festival

If you're an artist eager to showcase your work, the application can be found on our website. For those interested in sponsoring the creative celebration, please email us at ArkansasArtShow@att.net, or call 479-215-7978. If you would like to contribute as a volunteer, send us a message, and our dedicated staff will happily provide you with more information.

Mark your calendars, invite your friends, and prepare for a memorable weekend celebrating art, culture, and community at the Tontitown Art Festival!
